WINTER 2017

ISSUE 123

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The winter has affected our projects this year. We need the water, but it wrecks havoc on our outdoor developments. The water tower at the Casa Grande is on a wait and see list. Our Wednesday work group will have to be patient until The Parks Department gives us the go ahead.

Meanwhile, there has been a change in the staff at the Casa Grande. Julie Lee will be working as the temporary manager of the Parks Department's Volunteer Program, John Slenter retired and moved to Arizona, Bridget is taking a 6 months Dr. scheduled rehab for an illness, Luke Bailey is replacing Bridget, Rhonda is working hard on the Museum History and van tours, the Interp Program Coordinator, Elizabeth, will fill in for Julie Lee, and of course our terrific jack of all programs, Chris Carson Seals. Come and meet everyone and enjoy all the good work at the Casa Grande.

The Museum Docents are doing a fine job keeping the visitors informed about the History of New Almaden, the Quicksilver County Park, and the Casa Grande. I thought you might like to know the docents for the Museum for 2017.
