PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Check out our web site at NewAlmaden.org. Ron Horii, our new member of NAQCPA Board, has set it up beautifully. Agendas, events and great pictures can be found at that site. Marvin Tanner, also a new member of the Board, has taken over from Bob Meyer the treasurer's duties. Another NAQCPA member, Jim Campbell, has published a new book of his Santa Clara Valley drawings, Down Memory Lane.

Our Bell Tower Project is coming along nicely. We will have it completed by PIONEER DAY, OCT. 10, 2015. The New Almaden Community Club has chosen the Bell Tower drawing for their new t-shirts for New Almaden Day on September 12, 2015. We hope to have those for our Pioneer Day.

The Wednesday Crew has received good reports to build a new trail in Almaden Quicksilver County Park. This will be an interpretive Incline Railroad Trail. As soon as the Bell Tower is completed, the crew will work on this new trail. Come help if you can.

We had a spectacular day at Play Like a Miner Day at the AQ Museum. The new adit at the Blacksmith Shop with the ore cart and track was a hit. Over 200 visitors came to Casa Grande that day, Saturday June 27, 2015.

Come join us for hikes, Museum visits, Van Tours, building projects and working on archives.
